Not illustrated. 1922 Excerpt: .the very beginnng of my term, I li.-r i given my full time to the Department Commander in interest of the Department, and regret that I was not called upon to do more than I did. As an officer of the Department I became a member of the Council of Administration and save but two occasions, I attended every meeting held by them at Headquarters in Philadelphia. During the past year, I have attended a number oi public affairs, and addressed them the best way I knew how, and it was a great joy to me, to see and hear the great love that the people have for the Grand Army of thr, Republic. I need not, of course, remind you of the fast decline of our organization, and I am fully confident that when we are gone, and the last comrade has answered the last roll-call, our sons and their sons, and a grateful public will forever cherish the Grand Army of the Repnbic. I would be unkind if I worn not to mention the extreme courtesies extended to me by the Department Commander, the assistant Adjutant General, and the Posts of this section, and I assure them of my grateful appreciation. Before closing this report, I want to thank the Department of Pennsylvania for the confidence they placed in me, by electing me to this office at Allentown, and I trust I have done my duty to the satisfaction of the Department Encampment. I...
