Aesop s Angel is the perfect children s book for parents seeking inspirational literature to initiate communication with their children about God and his Angels. This story is about a young boy with a rare gift. He can see and speak to his guardian Angel! Ever since Aesop was born, Terah has been beside him guiding him every step of the way. She is with him while he plays, does chores, and attends school. One day Aesop gets lost in the woods and is forced to stay alone in the dark. He can t understand why this is happening to him. Terah explains that good things can t always happen but, when bad or scary times occur in our lives - God and his Angels are there protecting us in ways we cannot see. Aesop s Angel is very unique. The black and white (life-like) photographs that serve as illustrations bring Terah to life and inspires the reader; whether they are young or old. THIS BOOK IS A...
