And yet, despite last years rude shock in the Oberlin debacle, both of these games with the Ohio Conference schools are considered as preliminary to the great event on October 21. Meantime, since September 15, Ohio State s scarlet-jerseyed football men have been toiling constantly on Ohio Field, under the direction of Dr. John W. Wilce and his eleven assistant coaches, striving to perfect an eleven that will do honor to the new Ohio Stadium and carry the name of the University through the stiffest schedule ever faced by a Buckeye team. More than 70 candidates reported to the coaches Backfield Material Plentiful on that first day of practice No time was lost in At the time of writing, October 1, the team...
