The ancients hoarded their magic and sealed it in secret redoubts, hidden from Sleepers and the debased spells of our age. The lords of these storehouses are long gone, but their enchantments remain, enigmas to confound us, their heirs in magic. In some of these places, the guardians charged with their protection still wait, ready to destroy interlopers. But I have a map, and I know certain secrets. Are you with me? â Athos, Mysterium explorer Some Things Are Best Left Forgotten The...
