Not illustrated. 1871 Excerpt: .principally graduates of those institutions who were studying the improved practice of medicine in the Eclectic College. But these noted schools sink into insignificance beside the overwhelming catalogue of professors of the American University of Philadelphia, etc. We print the list as published in Gopsill's Directory for 1871 as a goak. Many of our readers will recognize the names of those who, when they knew them but a few months since, were honest worthy mechanics. We are sorry that one printer is among the motley crew. But who would not be a professor with alphabetic terminals innumerable when the honor can be procured for from $15 to $50! FACULTY NO. I.
