Not illustrated. 1892 Excerpt: .the name of every minister in the connection laboring in the State and given in our Minutes prior to 1851, but since that date we have given the names of those only who attained ministerial standing in our local associations. The names of others we have nothing to do with. But the career of those who have come into the closer and more responsible relation to our churches which ministerial standing involves, from 1851 to May, 1892, may easily be traced, whether changeable or stable.
