Genevieve--Her Miracles--Tomb and Adoration--Private Masses. I was one day, in the neighbourhood of the Place de Greve, and came rather accidentally upon the church of St. Gerwais. --Its architecture is the more striking, as you would never expect to find such a work in the midst of the filthy, narrow, and irregular streets, which surround it. The churches of Paris are always open--always accessible to the public. I stepped into this out of a shower of rain, and select it almost at random, as one of the few, of which it is possible to make special mention. I have never been in one, in which there were not persons..
