Excerpt: . . . Reynolds v. Reynolds. officers of the corporation, who must pass on its sufficiency, and it therefore comes within the scope of their authority to say whether proof of the loss is sufficient. It may be added that in ascertaining and settling losses they frequently act upon personal investigations by themselves or their agents, and thus obtain knowledge that renders the preliminary proofs wholly immaterial. In this case there was evidence tending to show not only an implied, but an express, waiver of the preliminary proofs; and the court are of opinion that it should have been submitted to the jury, and was sufficient to have authorized them to find for the plaintiffs on that point. The verdict should be set aside, and a new trial granted. Michael Reynolds Vs. Bridget Reynolds. This court has power, under Gen. Sts, e. 107, 4, to declare...
